COMMITTEE CHAIRS
QUESTION	ANSWER
How do I plan for being appointed as a chair?	There are a variety of volunteer opportunities available with IHIMA. Depending on your availability and interests, you can work with an ongoing committee or participate on short-term projects. Volunteering provides you the opportunity to network with members who are already on the Board. This is a good way to show your interest as to wanting to become a committee chair. Many board members started with volunteering at the regional level or as a committee member to familiarize themselves with the requirements and demands before volunteering as a chair. Qualifications for volunteering as a committee chair are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ must have AHIMA Professional/Premier membership type ➤ hold an AHIMA approved credential ➤ select Indiana as your State Association
